Junior Account Executive (Graduate position)

Basingstoke

Are you curious about the technology that powers our digital world? At the heart of it all is data. Data runs the world. If you're interested in how it's protected, where it's stored, how it's moved and frankly, how it's used to run all aspects of our digital lives, a career in B2B tech PR could be for you.

We're on the hunt for four outstanding candidates to join our B2B tech PR team. Touchdown PR is an award-winning international enterprise communications and tech PR agency with 110+ staff in offices across the globe, including the USA, Europe, APAC and ANZ.

The role will be based in our EMEA HQ in Basingstoke, but there will also be scope to work from our London office too.

We specialize in enterprise technology innovation ranging from mobility, cyber security, data protection/management and storage, to networks, communications, big data, Artificial Intelligence and cloud.

As a junior account executive, you will play a key role within the team, gaining first-hand experience executing industry-leading campaigns for our clients. We will provide training, support your growth and development and provide you with opportunities to flourish. In addition, you'll receive a competitive salary and great benefits to kick start your career.

If you are interested in B2B tech and want a career in PR, please send your CV and 100 words explaining why you'd like to work for us.
